We would like to get a better understanding of how different aspects of personality support creativity, the experience of being engaged in creative activities and how mindfulness and sensory information processing relates to this. We are seeking healthy participants aged 18-65 who are fluent in English to take part. You will be entered into a draw for one of our £25 Amazon vouchers for completing an online survey and receive £50 cash if you take part in the lab-based sessions at IoPPN,...
