University of Karlstad / Karlstads Universitet

As a part of an EU project called CREDENTIAL, we have created a survey in which your participation really matters for us. In the CREDENTIAL project, we aim to develop, test and showcase innovative cloud-based services for storing, managing and sharing digital identity information with a demonstrably higher level of security than other current solutions. We appreciate if you take your time and complete our survey about signing up for a website using a mobile app.
