Interview

Online

University of Surrey

We need volunteers for research into invasive negative, repetitive thoughts at the University of Surrey. You will be asked some questions about your personal experience in an approximately 1-hour interview, conducted in person in the School of Psychology's laboratories. If in-person interviews cannot be conducted due to COVID-19 restrictions or personal reasons, interviews will be conducted online on Microsoft Teams. You will be rewarded a £10 gift voucher for your time.
