Social Anxiety can be very debilitating for some. We are undergoing a research project to see if we can assist with this by using Virtual Reality. We are seeking those from the general public to become involved. Initially, a quick (3min) online survey will be administered (people can opt to enter a £10 voucher draw). We will invite some people to come into the University to undergo the Virtual Reality intervention (3 sessions over a 3 week period, where up to £45 in vouchers will be...
