I'm a PhD student carrying out research on the experiences of young adults living with a stoma, with focus on access to care and support in the NHS. I'm currently looking for volunteers to help guide the study by offering feedback on participant-facing documentation and interview questions. All those living in the West Midlands area (in the vicinities of Stoke-on-Trent) are invited to attend a meeting to be held in February/ March at Keele University. It would be a great opportunity to use...
