We are running a study looking at how people behave in Virtual Reality (VR). If you'd like to participate, you'll be asked to attend a session on University Park campus where you will use an immersive multisensory VR system and complete a short series of tasks in a virtual office building. The session includes 1) a short training, 2) the tasks, 3) a short interview, taking in total around 30 minutes. Please do take note of the eligibility criteria, as some people may experience adverse...
