University College London

We are looking for volunteers for an online study to help us find new ways of reducing Coronavirus-related distress. You do not need to visit a laboratory - instead, you would be asked to complete some online questionnaires and tasks over a period of time.

Please note that this study consists of several parts that need to be completed over a period of 3-4 months. On completion of the final session, participants will receive a one-off payment of £35 via bank transfer.
