Prize draw of 20€ voucher (draw
of 3 vouchers)

Online Questionnaire

Online

Goldsmiths University of London

We aim to understand how personality traits change the perception of emotions in multicultural settings. In this study you will be shown with a set of videos. We would like to ask your opinion about the emotional content of the videos. You will also be shown with a set of sentences to provide your opinion about national groups and empathy towards refugees.

You will have the chance to be part of a prize draw of three 20€ vouchers.
