Splitting Income Experiment

5 min(s) to complete

Up to $100 in Amazon gift cards

Experiment

Online

Saint Francis Xavier University

Looking for people to participate in in short 5 minute online experiment. In the experiment, you will be asked to make decisions about splitting income with other participants in order to investigate people's attitudes towards income inequality. Everything in this experiment is completely anonymous, so your identity will be unknown to the researcher and to other participants.

You can complete the experiment from your personal computer, and win up to $100 in Amazon gift cards!
