University of Aberdeen

Over a 90-minute session held at the University of Aberdeen we will give you 2 iPad-based memory tasks to complete and you will be compensated 10£ for your time. The tasks ask you to learn the locations of different objects on the iPad screen. One stays at a fixed level, while the second increases with difficulty as you work your way through. These are small group sessions of up to 20 people. If you are a native English speaker, you can also take part in up to 2 follow-on optional sessions....
