Experiment

Nottingham NG7, UK

University of Nottingham

If you participate in this behavioural study, you will complete two computer-based tasks: one where you will be asked to make a judgement about words and another where you will be asked to make a judgement about shapes. Additionally, you will be asked to fill in 2 questionnaires. The whole procedure will last approx. 1 hour and will take place at the School of Psychology on University Park Campus. An inconvenience allowance will be provided.
