Online Questionnaire

Online

University of Central Lancashire

As part of the study you are required to respond to 4 questionnaires which measure self-esteem, resilience, nostalgic tendencies, and anxiety about death. You may also be presented with a media article which reports the events of a genuine UK terror attack and asked to briefly answer two questions, which will then be followed by a word game. Not all participants will be required to do this step so do not worry if you do not receive any further questions than the standard 4 questionnaires.
