

Call For Participants

£50 - Have you ever been fined for a minor offence?

60 min(s) to complete

People for Research

Dates throughout June

£50 bank transfer

People for Research are looking to speak with people who have been fined for a minor offence (such as fare evasion, speeding fine or failure to pay for your TV licence). If this sounds like you, please apply!

Website testing

The research will be taking place in various locations, including London, Manchester, and Bristol. There are also going to be telephone sessions available, so those outside of these cities can still get involved!
