It is important to do research on well-being and human experience during a global crisis. I am collaborating with a Dietitian and Public Health scholar to research adults' (ages 18 and over) current experience with the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic. We are specifically interested in individual well-being and social media use. People who complete the survey can be entered into a raffle for one of 10, $20 Amazon gift cards. The survey takes approximately 15-20 minutes to complete.
