Detective Pig - gamification
study on Computer Vision

7 day(s) to complete

National Chiao Tung University

We would like to invite you to participate in our study.

Sincere Gratitude

“Detective Pig” is a small, competitive game designed to build the training data set for Computer Vision system and to better understand difference in perception of objects between Computer Vision and humans.

Experiment

The experiment will take a week, during which you can play as much as you want.
