Experiment

Nice, France

Université Côte d'Azur

We are paying all costs associated with a five night trip to Nice France for native speakers of British English born and raised in or around London, England, to participate in a study on language production.

Participants must come from a mono-lingual background and be under 50 years of age. Qualified participants will be needed to wear an EEG cap for a couple of hours per day for the duration of the experiment. We will need to fly qualified participants to Nice, France, for the sessions.
