Online Questionnaire

Online

University of Aberdeen

I am looking for participants to complete an online study on perceived violence in popular culture.

You will be asked to read and rate excerpts from a popular novel, watch short film-clips, play an online game and answer a 16-item sexual experiences questionnaire. Before signing up, be aware the questionnaire deals with sensitive topics. You can choose not to answer a question if you feel uncomfortable. Please have headphones available as part of the study includes sound.
