We are looking for volunteers aged 18-50 to participate in a laboratory study. You would be invited to come to the psychology laboratories at Liverpool John Moores University in the company of a close friend, romantic partner or relative with you. You must have known this person for at least six months and feel comfortable holding their hand during the experiment. If you are interested and would like more information, please get in touch with Shaunna Devine (s.devine@2016.ljmu.ac.uk).
